PROCTOR & GAMBLE SOAP DISTRIBUTIONS ARE HERE

Carvassers for Proctor & Gamble are in Kingston introducing by samples what the well known soap company calls "The New Style Oxydol" in a larger package than formerly used, containing 35 ounces instead of 28.

Besides the increase in weight, Oxydol makers say they have another interesting feature for housewives and others who use it. Through analyzing, they have learned how to prepare their product to fit mixture with the various kinds of water, and ship to Kingston and vicinity, the Oxydol that gives the best results when used with water from Catskill mountain sources.

REPUBLICAN CLUB IN 4TH WARD MEETS TONIGHT

A regular meeting of the Fourth Ward Republican Club will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the club rooms at 460 Delaware avenue. Michael J. Powers, president, will preside. A full attendance is looked for.

Meetings in September

Through a slip it was written that there will be no meetings of the Taxpayers Association during July and September. The vacation months will be July and August, with regular meetings resumed in September.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

By The Associated Press

Boston, June 7 (AP).—Redheads will be the rage this summer.

Redheads not too red—just a sort of red brown, known technically as auburn.

And the redheads will wear their hair short. Not too short—just sort of down to the neckline.

That's the prediction made by experts of the Massachusetts League of Women Hairdressers during their annual meeting.

"Help" Cries Madki.

Selimye, Turkey—Madki Hamdi is the father of 43 living children. 28 boys and five girls. He has asked the government for a pension.

And The Dogs Cluck.

Chestertown, Md.—A hen on the Linwood Sutton farm is "mothering" two puppies, caring for them during the day and hovering over them at night as she would a brood of chicks.

One night "mother" was taken from the pups and they set up a lusty howl until she was returned.

Cupid As the Law.

Philadelphia—Cosmo Cornio, 19, is in love and may soon go to Italy—but indications are it won't be on his honeymoon. The lad's father

OUR DAILY PATTERNS.

4-H Girls to Attend Camp at Glenrie

More than 75 of Ulster county's older 4-H girls are expected to attend the camp at Glenrie this week-end. Mrs. Nancy M. Roman, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., will be the principal instructor. The staff will also include Miss Margaret Latimer, South Dakota, and present holder of the National 4-H Fellowship.

Saturday evening the 4-H girls will entertain invited guests at a buffet supper. Among the guests are members of the board of directors of the Farm and Home Bureau Association. Millard Davis, Kerhonkson, president of the association, has called a short special meeting to be held at this time. The board of directors of the 4-H department will hold its regular monthly meeting.

"Reddishing Old Furniture" will be the topic of Mrs. Roman's demonstration. This will include instruction in the selection of furniture worth reddishing, removing the old finish and in applying a new finish.

Miss Latimer will give special assistance with camp recreation. She has had considerable experience in this field in South Dakota 4-H camps. She will also give a talk telling some of her experiences in Washington, D. C., during the past year.

Agricultural Fair Here August 23-25

The directors of the Ulster County Agricultural Society have definitely decided to hold the annual fair on August 23, 24 and 25 at the New State Armory on North Manor avenue, Kingston. An executive committee consisting of Fred DuBois of New Paltz, Sam Bernstein, John H. Beatty and E. W. Hathaway, all of Kingston, will have full charge of all the detailed arrangements. This takes the place of the county fair which has been held in Ellenville in the past.

The present plan is to open the exposition Wednesday evening, August 23, continue all day Thursday, Thursday evening and close late Friday afternoon. All of the usual exhibits, for which premiums will be paid, will be arranged for, as well as the "Little Country Theatre," possibly a horse show, a pet show and numerous other features which will be of interest to everyone. The premium list will be ready in the near future and other details will be announced later.

Special Program At Broadway Theatre

A program offering everything that goes to make a full bill of entertainment—singing, dramatic skits, a fashion parade, dancing and a movie—will be presented at the Broadway Theatre, Monday evening, Tuesday, June 12 and 13 under the direction of Miss Cashin who has titled her revue, "Hits and Misses". The moving picture run in conjunction with the stage show will be "Ricky Rax." The revue will be as follows:

The opening number includes children in snappy red and white costumes. They will sing, dance and introduce in numbers something different—Anna Knetch, "Speed" Scherer, Nita Hoffman, Don Zuc Florence Knetch, Myron Hopp Janet Evans, Francis Schilling, Margaret Maxim and Leo Morgan. Janet Evans and Bob Lockwood will do a skit, "A Pair of Lunatic". Margaret Maxim and Leo Morgan will appear in "Tee for Two" in a setting showing a Garden of Eden party. Following this number in Ball, Miriam Tammany and Mildred Billyou will do a soft shoe dance, "The Spring in Pares" will be sung by "Speed" Scherer, and the Harmonians, who have appeared a number of times in Kingston will render their pleasing bits. Thirty children will do a ballet number, executed in ballet, acrobatic and toe dancing. Bernie Goldman, in charge of the "Fashion Parade" has made several trips to New York city to arrange for the latest in frocks of the sport graduation, afternoon, evening and bridal variety.

Tickets for the revue may be obtained from the pupils of Miss Hel Cashin or those belonging to the Parent-Teacher Association of School No. 7 or the Hi-Y Girls.

Muscle will be by Jack Cashin Night Hawks, Ernest Luedtke will play several violin selections during the ballet scene.

think most women like them. They wear them, the big sleeve is back, and a nuisance it is. The stalking slender young things wear them well, but alas for those who are caste in a rounder mold. Of course, they are smart just now, as witness this gayly flowered coat, linen if you please. It has gone the whole hog, to use a homely expression, in the matter of shoulder width, not even forgetting that little Siamese peek which is one of Schiaparelli's little tricks.

The little separate jacket, linen pique, or something of the sort, is an outstanding fad among the younger set. It is the sort of thing the younger set would like, for we might as well admit that it is another fashion far from kind to larger women. Even so, many attractive jackets are being shown in the shops, designed to be worn with skirts or dresses entirely unrelated in color or fabric. Some of the best-looking are of printed linen. While plaids and checks lead by a mile, there are some stunning floral patterns you are sure to like.

Another stunning fashion of the moment is the plaid lining for the swaggar coats. Gingham is very chic for this purpose. One does not need warmth for a while.

In the same category as the contrasting swaggar coat or short jacket is the contrasting blouse. It is suggested that this be darker than the costume with which it is worn.

The Seamy Side of Little Interest

DID YOU KNOW THAT

Leading stores featured the white broadcloth raincoat in the bathing suit department as a beach coat.

White chamotte gloves with narrower slightly flaring cuffs of contrasting fabric, including the two-layer double organdie, and the waffle pique, are observed on many women.
